Dependent Mother and Two Children Deported—Have Tuberculosis—Lillie Roma May be Sent Back to Italy—Local Cases Assigned for Superior Court Trial—Rev. William Payne Seriously Ill.

Through the consistent work of Miss Elizabeth Abner, secretary of the social welfare department of the Western Visiting Nurse association, the town is relieved of the support of a woman and two children, who have been returned to their native country by the United States immigration authorities. They sailed Friday from Providence on the Italian liner "Venezia" for Naples. Mrs. Flora Montalto and her two little children were the first passengers to go up the gangplank. The mother was all smiles in anticipation of the trip back home, a joy ride, which she duly appreciated. In a great hat, which an immigration agent seized, were apples, bananas, bread and other food, the ration for the voyage of 15 days.

Mrs. Montalto sported a new pair of patent leather shoes, bought for her by the immigration agent in a Providence store. Instead of selecting a pair of plain, substantial shoes, Mrs. Montalto yielded to the lure of patent leather. Next to her in the shoe store was a woman with patent leathers. "Oh, I want 'em like other girls," she had said, and she got them, the agent having stepped out of the store on an errand. He returned too late to put a veto on the dressy shoes, and that was why the deported passengers looked with envy at Mrs. Montalto when she walked up the gangplank.

The passenger list of the "Venezia" contained 3600 names and over a hundred more passengers in prospect could not be accommodated. They were left behind to wait for the next steamship. The "Venezia" will go direct to Naples and from there to Genoa.

It is probable that an Italian girl who resided in Westerly for a short time will also be deported at an early date, but perhaps not until the state of Rhode Island has expressed the state of Connecticut for her care and medical treatment at the Lawrence hospital, New London. The girl is Lillie Roma, age 18, whose face was slashed with a knife by Frank Pizzello, on the afternoon of Oct. 26, in Canal street, Westerly. The girl has no relatives in Westerly, could not be given proper treatment here, and was sent to the Lawrence hospital. A brother-in-law, Louis Moricato, who resided in Italy street, New London, departed for Shaw

He lived and he worked, and now he has announced that his instrument is indeed perfected.

The New Edison Diamond Disc Phonograph, therefore, represents the culmination of thirty-five years of endeavor to perfectly reproduce sound.

The New Edison Records now coming in increasing numbers include the NEWEST DANCE MUSIC, comic songs, vaudeville and popular airs, as well as the finest of GRAND OPERAS and chamber music. The best in every line.

When the Grand Army post of Worcester ventured to buy the Bull property on Pearl street, it was a large edit from Mr. Fanning which inspired the veterans and gave them courage to persevere in their efforts to pay off the indebtedness incurred, nor are these public acts all, for a much larger amount is constantly passing from his hands in their efforts to pay off the absolutely nothing. The number of weak and struggling churches that he aids is great; there are many individuals who are on his list of regular recipients of his bounty, and best of all he runs his great factory as though it were a pleasure to make happy and comfortable every one of the hundreds there employed.
